

The FCC should not implement any program that will lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law.

My family's late afternoon and early evening living quality has improved considerably since this regulation was initiated. We literally receive no telephone solicitation since initiation of the law.